IMPACT

Why Work With Me?

- Human-first, system-aware approach to every project
- Grounded in field research & contextual nuance
- Comfortable across strategy, design, and delivery
- Experience across health, education, tech & livelihoods
- Lead a charitable trust + trained in anthropology

Work Style

I'm a remote-first consultant, which means I can work with teams across geographies. I'm also open to on-ground visits when needed, especially for research, training, or co-creation sprints.

If you are:

- Designing a new program
- Running into implementation gaps
- Seeking fresh insight into what's really happening
- Or just need a sparring partner to reflect with
